As Chief Financial Officer of Meridian Enterprise, John Stack spearheads accounting and financial services throughout every business division. With a focus on strategic finance, John brings expertise in financial modeling, risk management, system implementation, and long-term strategic planning to the table.

Most recently before stepping into the role of CFO, John served as Senior Vice President of Finance for Walk-On's Sports Bistreaux, and previously held the position of Director of Technology Business Management at Intercontinental Hotel Group (IHG). Prior to that, he accumulated 14 years of experience in the utility industry working for Southern Company and Berkshire Hathaway Energy subsidiaries. John is a Certified Public Accountant (CPA) with an MBA from Georgia State University and a Bachelor of Arts degree from Covenant College.

John and his wife of 18 years, Laura, are the proud parents of Owen (10) and Ethan (7), two young soccer enthusiasts. They are devoted supporters of Atlanta United and can be found cheering on their boys at the pitch every weekend. When soccer season is over, the family enjoys bonding over camping, fishing, and exploring the great outdoors together.
